The Code Task Force reviewed a new revision of the draft Zoning Law provided by Tom Shepstone. Mike Baden and Steve Fornal reported on their findings of the Route 209 Business Zone field review. A number of parcels are residential and were changed in zoning designation. Also several parcels near Route 209 were identified as being conducive to being a business park and were changed to business zone. The outcome is a more diverse zoning along Route 209 with several business nodes, several Core Farm nodes, and several residential nodes.
